INTO AN UNKNOWN SEA

Is Duly Launched the Hull Army Reorganization Bill.

IT BOBS UP IN THE SENATE.

Democratic Minority of the Military Committee Ridicule the Measure and Offer a Substitute—Work of the Upper House.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Soon after the senate convened a house joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the navy to pay certain laborers, workmen and mechanics at the United States navy yards and naval stations 50 per cent additional for work performed in excess of eight hours per diem was called up. Mr. Hawley (Conn.) inquired of Mr. Burrows (Mich.), who had the measure in charge, if it applied to existing contracts. He said it did so apply it might bankrupt some contractors. Mr. Burrows explained that it applied only to regular employees of the naval establishment. The resolution was adopted.

The military academy appropriation bill was passed without debate and consideration of the naval personnel bill begun.

At this point Mr. Hawley (Conn.) reported the army reorganization bill to the senate, and made a statement as to the necessity of passing the bill very soon.

Mr. Cockrell (Mo.) made a statement for the Democrats of the military affairs committee, criticizing the army bill and presenting the counter proposition of the Democrats.

The proposition of the Democratic members of the military committee is to continue the present standing army of the United States to a maximum of 62,000 men for two years, and the enlistment of natives of the several islands to the number of 35,000 men.

Mr. Morgan (Ala.) offered the Nicaragua canal bill as an amendment to the river and harbor bill, and had it referred to the committee on commerce now considering that measure. The bill is substantially the Hepburn bill offered in the house with some modifications.

The modifications of the bill relates to the method of acquirement of right of way. The provision in the Hepburn bill requiring purchase of Costa Rica and Nicaragua is stricken out, and the first section is changed to read as follows: "That the president of the United States be and is hereby authorized to acquire for and in behalf of the United States such portion of territory now belonging to Costa Rica and Nicaragua, and such rights, easements or privileges therein or connected therewith as may be desirable and necessary to excavate, construct, control and defend a canal of such depth and capacity as will be sufficient for the movement of ships, etc."

House and McNary Resolution.

Washington, Feb. 16.—House leaders familiar with foreign questions say no program has been matured or even outlined thus far as to what will be done with the McNary resolution relating to the Philippines passed by the senate. It will probably go to the foreign affairs committee, although the point has been made that with the ratification of the treaty, the Philippines are no longer foreign territory. Some of the members of the committee stated privately that they would not vote for the resolution if it could be construed as objectionable to the administration.

Codification of Criminal Laws.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The report of the commission on the codification of the United States criminal and penal laws is about completed, and the portion of it covering offenses against the postal laws has been submitted as a special report to congress. The postmaster general has communicated with both houses of congress asking for immediate enactment of the entire report on this subject, pointing out its urgent needs. The laws revised embrace all up to and including the session of the Fifty-fifth congress.

Graves of the Maine's Dead.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Commandant Cromwell, at the Havana navy yard, telegraphed the navy department as follows: "Graves of dead of the Maine decorated Wednesday. Ceremony beautiful and impressive. American ladies, ladies of Havana, city council and citizens participated. Solemnities closed with silent prayer." Mayor Yznaga, at Trinidad, also telegraphed that memorial exercises were held there in commemoration of the destruction of the Maine.

House Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 16.—In the house the senate amendments to the agricultural bill were non-concurred in and the bill was sent to conference. Messrs. Wadsworth (R., N. Y.), Warner (R., Ill.) and Williams (D.) were appointed conferees. Without further preliminary business in the house it went into committee of the whole and resumed consideration of the sundry civil bill.

Volunteer Officers Discharged.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The war department has honorably discharged Major Generals Butler and Sumner and Brigadier Generals Kline, McKee, Wiley, Lincoln and Comba, all of the volunteer army.

As Civil Engineers.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The president nominated Ernest P. Goodrich, of Michigan, Leonard M. Cox of Kentucky and Alfred C. Lawrence of Michigan to be civil engineers in navy.

INHALED ESCAPING GAS.

Ohio Judge Found Dead in Bed and His Wife Unconscious.

Bellefontaine, O., Feb. 16.—Judge Thomas Mittenberger was found dead in bed and his wife in an unconscious condition, from which she cannot recover. Escaping gas from a broken fixture was the cause.

Was He Murdered?

Zanesville, O., Feb. 16.—One week ago Frank Shanley, after a night carousal, was shot at a low resort. Persons in the place at the time all declared that he had committed suicide. After rigid investigation the police are positive that the man was killed, though whether deliberately or accidentally, the police are uncertain. Arrests are expected.

Ohio River Falling.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 16.—The Ohio river is still falling here. Danger from ice is steadily decreasing. Rain is falling at up river points. At Catlettsburg the ice is running faster. New river and the Kanawha will soon be rising and the Ohio will naturally swell with the melting of snow. The loss of coal towns by the ice is the chief apprehension now.

New Vessels For Great Lakes.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 16.—Orders for four very large steel freighters, two steamers of 6,250 tons each and two barges of 7,250 tons each, just placed by the Bessemer Steamship company (Rockefeller interest) bring the number of contracts for new vessels of all kinds on the great lakes up to 36, and the total valuation to $5,109,000.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Feb. 16.—The Dell Roy Oil and Gas company, Cleveland, $1,500; the Lorain County Railway company, Elyria, $100,000; the Electric Light and Power company, Van Wert, amendment changing name to the Gas-Electric Light and Power company, and certificate of increase from $50,000 to $100,000.

Demurrer to Mrs. George's Plea.

Canton, O., Feb. 16.—A demurrer was filed to the plea in abatement to the indictment against Mrs. Anna George. Prosecutor Pomeroy interposes the demurrer to the various grounds in the plea because, he claims, they are insufficient in substance to abate the indictment.

Our Trade With Spain.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The lack of a commercial treaty with Spain is not altogether preventing trade between the two countries. United States Consular Agent Mertens, at Valencia, reports to the state department that there is a great demand for American wheat. A cargo of 4,000 tons of red winter wheat, which had just arrived there, proved entirely satisfactory, and importers were willing to receive more. The consular agent quoted remained at his post during the entire war and discharged his official functions without molestation.

Traveling on Snow Shoes.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 16.—Reports from Kokomo, Robinson and other towns on the South Park railway line, above Como, show a serious state of affairs. Some of the citizens, women as well as men, are leaving the towns, making their way to Leadville on snow shoes. Snow is 12 feet deep on the level. There is nothing but flour, potatoes and some canned goods in Kokomo to eat, and only a few days supply of these.

Lord Herschell's Fall.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Lord Herschell, of the joint American-Canadian commission, sustained quite a painful injury to his left hip through a fall on the ice. He was carried to his apartments by a passing carriage, and has since been confined to his bed.

Natural Gas Let Go.

Marion, Ind., Feb. 16.—By an explosion of natural gas in the home of Charles A. Pumper, both Pumper and his wife were fatally injured. The house, a five room cottage, was totally destroyed.

Madrid, Feb. 16.—All the surviving captains of Spanish warships destroyed in the naval battles off Santiago de Cuba and in Manila bay by the American fleets will be courtmartialled.

WITH FINE CEREMONY

Was Laid the Cornerstone of the Addition to Ohio's Capitol.

MANY NOTABLES PRESENT.

Governor Bushnell Wielded the Trowel After a Graceful Speech—Attorney General Monnett Attacks Unlawful Trusts and Combines.

Columbus, O., Feb. 16.—With impressive ceremony the cornerstone to the new addition to the Ohio capitol was laid here Thursday afternoon. Among the thousands who witnessed the exercises were state officials, members of the general assembly and many visitors from the surrounding cities. Numerous American flags were displayed.

After invocation by Rev. H. H. Barbour, Governor Bushnell formally laid the cornerstone, and made an address

In which he reviewed the progress and growth of the state since the laying of the first cornerstone, 60 years ago.

The principal addresses of the day immediately followed and were delivered at the Board of Trade auditorium, where a goodly number had assembled. Judge Shauk, of the supreme court, reviewed the work of the court since its inception, showing how effective had been the labor of the judges. He spoke of the changes in the character of the cases, following changes in the country.

Attorney General F. S. Monnett, after tracing the settlement and growth of the northwest territory, attacked unlawful trusts and combines, and expressed the belief that the corporations were robbing the people of their liberty. He said in part:

"We have loaned to corporations some of the functions of the government; we have given them the right to take private property for public purposes; we have permitted them to usurp our franchises in the highways, in the rivers and over the bridges; we have permitted them, for public purposes, to string wires across the country, yet agents of the governmental functions bequeathed to them have too often forgotten that these potent functions of government so loaned to them, if used, must be justly and fairly and legally exercised."

"For many purposes the income of these corporations is but another name for taxation, to the extent that that represent the government; to that extent is their income an excise tax. They can no more discriminate against one citizen as against another than the state could impose its taxes upon one to the exemption of another. If they exercise the right of eminent domain, they must also subject themselves to the principles of a common carrier. If they occupy our streets they must be amenable to the rules and regulations of the municipality wherein they exist."

"If you love your country, if you love the oppressed, if you are patriotic, you will not submit to aggressions and the subverting of the rights of the common man, either by bribery for position, or for the emoluments of office, but whenever and wherever you see tyranny in any form, oppression under any guise, the using of the forms of government to unlawfully build up private estates at the expense of the common welfare, be men and rise above the baneful influence that would work your own destruction."

Spout Trust.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Pipe Machine and Manufacturing company, one of the latest combinations among the iron, steel and tin plate manufacturers, was organized here. The new combination embraces all the leading tin pipe and spout manufacturers in the United States. Representatives of 30 manufacturers throughout the United States were in attendance.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 16.—The twenty-sixth ballot for United States senator resulted: Quay 97, Jenks 74, Dalzell 15, scattering 31. No choice.

INTO THE JUNGLE

Philippine Rebels Are Driven After a Brush With the American Boys

Manilla, Feb. 16.—A large body of the enemy, presumably reconnoitering, was discovered on the right of Brigadier General King's position, near San Pedro Macati, Thursday morning. The entire brigade turned out, and after an exchange of volleys, the rebels retreated into the jungle and disappeared.

Since the American line reached the natural defenses of Manilla they have made no further advance, and the troops are now encamped along the line. Many places have been temporarily entrenched.

Occasional brushes with small bodies of the enemy by scouting parties have been the only cause of excitement. Troops K and I of the Fourth cavalry encountered the enemy's scouts Wednesday near Paraque and exchanged a few volleys with them. During the firing Trooper Wiltnerk was wounded in the right arm.

The cruiser Buffalo fired four small shells at a party of the enemy which the cruiser's searchlight showed to be mounting a battery near Paraque. The enemy made no reply, and withdrew their guns to Paraque.

Intelligence From Cila.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The war department received the following Manila cablegram from General Otis: "Harvey H. Harris, Twentieth Kansas, flesh wound on left leg; doing well; John Sorenson, First Montana, reported probably dead, is alive, but both eyes shot away; condition fair. Cable of 7th reporting William J. Hayes, First Washington, wounded slightly, is error. Oval F. Gibson, First Washington, reported missing, was found with sprained leg. Corporal Hayes, First Montana, cabled on 6th as missing, is with company."

May Remove Seats From House.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Several plans for remodeling the house of representatives will be considered by the house committee on ventilation and acoustics. Mr. Heatwole (Minn.) recently renewed attention to the subject by offering a resolution for the expenditure of $100,000 for remodeling the hall and putting in a complete system of ventilation. Mr. Heatwole's plans contemplate taking out the desks of the members, so that attention of members will be centered to the work of the house rather than to letter writing etc. It also proposes much more retrimming the house rather than to letter writing, the private work usually done at the member's desk.

Conflagration In the Navy Yard.

New York, Feb. 16.—Nearly a million dollars' worth of government property was destroyed in the Brooklyn navy yard, known as machine shop No. 28, and the workings of the yard have received a serious setback. Many fine models and patterns of battleships, their parts and plans, have been destroyed, and some of them cannot be replaced. The steam engineering department of the Brooklyn yard is practically wiped out, and the work done in the building will have to be thrown temporarily upon the department of yards and docks and that of construction and repair.

Chicago Telephone Franchise.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—It is generally believed that Mayor Harrison will sign the franchise granted to the Illinois telephone and Telegraph company to operate a plant in Chicago. One feature of the new franchise that meets with the hearty approval of the public in general is the fact that all slot machines are to be abolished, as provision is made for the rental to druggists and others of public telephones at $125 a year. Business telephones are to be furnished subscribers at $75 and residence telephones at $50 per annum.

Tied Up In Committee.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 16.—Governor Pingree's legislative following has relinquished hope of getting the Atkinson railroad taxation bill out of the hands of the house committee, to which it was referred on Tuesday by a vote of a narrow majority. The latter committee has decided to appoint two subcommittees of five, one to frame a bill that will take in railroads, telephone, telegraph, express, vessel and other such property as they may see fit to include; the other to frame a general taxation bill.

Widespread Damage Done.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 16.—A terrific norther, accompanied by an incessant rainstorm, has been causing numerous local floods. The storm swept the northern coast of the island, from Anito bay to Montego bay, from Monday to Wednesday, doing widespread damage to shipping, wharves, the railroads, cattle and cultivation, etc. No fatalities have been reported.

With Repatriated Spaniards.

Barcelona, Feb. 16.—The steamer Bothnia, which sailed from Cienfuegos via St. Michaels on Feb. 6 with repatriated troops on board, arrived here.

EMBALMED ARMY BEER

General Miles the First Witness to Be Placed on the Rack.

COURT OF INQUIRY MEETS.

It Will Perfect an Organization on Friday, When the Taking of Testimony Will Begin—Scope of the Commission.

Washington, Feb. 16.—All the members of the court of inquiry, convened by order of the president to investigate the charges of Major General Miles concerning the food furnished the army, have arrived in Washington.

General Miles, whose charges led to the court of inquiry, is here after being snowbound in New York. The quarters for the court are those recently used by the war commission.

The court is directed to investigate certain allegations of the major general commanding the army in respect to the unfitness for use of certain articles of food furnished by the subsistence department to the troops in the field during the recent operations in Cuba and Porto Rico. In addition to the findings of fact, the court will submit an opinion upon the merits of the case together with such recommendations as to further proceedings as seem to be warranted by the facts developed in the course of inquiry.

The members of the court held an informal conference, and on its conclusion Colonel Davis, the recorder, announced that the formal meeting of the court would be deferred until Friday.

Colonel Davis has been getting together a list of witnesses who will be likely to shed light on the character of the food furnished. As General Miles is specifically named in the order convening the court as authority for the charges, it is rather expected that his testimony will be taken first as a basis for the subsequent inquiry.

AS MAJOR GENERAL.

House Committee Reports Favorably on Corbin's Proposed Promotion.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The military affairs committee of the house reported favorably the senate bill to make Adjutant General H. C. Corbin a major general. The house bill for the same purpose has been reported already and this action was taken to facilitate action upon it in the house. It is not the intention of Chairman Hull to ask unanimous consent for the consideration of this bill, but to move its passage under suspension of the rules during the last six days of the session.

ALL BOSTON TURNED OUT.

Presidential Party Tendered Royal Welcome and an Elaborate Spread.

Boston, Feb. 16.—President McKinley, four members of his cabinet and other associates arrived here, the guests of the Home Market club, a national organization of Republicans. It seemed as if all Boston had turned out to bid the president and his cabinet welcome. Great crowds filled the cold train shed and streets, and pushed and jostled each other in an effort to get a view of the president, while the air rang with their cheers.

Several times during the parade and amid the general cheering, yells of derision and hisses were heard for Secretary of War Alger.

In the evening the largest dinner ever given in this country was tendered at the Mechanics' building by the Home Market club. Toasts were responded to by eminent men. President McKinley made felicitous remarks. Among the speakers were Secretary Alger, Postmaster General Smith and Congressman Grosvenor. The presidential party will leave for the capital Friday forenoon.

New Brighton, Pa., Feb. 16.—The opera house block, together with Marshall's dry goods store, Stuckey's drug store, Carey's shoe store, the Daily News, Schurp's drug store and the National guard armory were burned. Loss $85,000, fully insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

SECOND LIEUTENANT C. B. WILLIS, of Company B, Fourth Kentucky, will probably start a weekly newspaper in this city soon. He is arranging his plans to that end.

The local correspondent of the Cincinnati Post wired his paper Thursday morning that "a hard and steady rain had set in." The facts of the case were that a light sleet and hail was falling at the time, the total precipitation amounting to less than three hundredths of an inch.

THE TOBACCO TRUST.

Legal Steps Taken in Missouri Against the Combine With a View of Breaking It Up.

JEFFERSON, CITY, Mo., February 14.—Attorney General Crow filed suit to-day in the Supreme Court to break up plug tobacco trusts. He instituted quo warranto proceedings against the Continental Tobacco Company, the J. G. Butler Tobacco Company, the Brown Brothers Tobacco Company, Drummond Tobacco Company and the Wright Brothers Tobacco Company, the latter four of St. Louis.

The petition charges combination to control the output and prices in plug tobacco, in violation of the State antitrust law and against public policy. It charges, also, that in 1890 the Continental Company absorbed the other four companies and had undertaken to keep them alive as separate companies, but that the Continental Company controlled their output and prices; that one of them stopped doing business at the direction of the trust, throwing many people out of employment. The action of the Continental Company in getting control of the other St. Louis companies caused the Attorney General to institute proceedings to destroy the trust.

His Valet Arrested.

Louisville Dispatch: "Andrew Smith, a negro valet in the employ of B. L. Cook, a prominent citizen of Nicholasville, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Detectives Hickey and Sexton on the charge of grand larceny. Mr. Cook, who is on his way to West Baden Springs, arrived in the city Tuesday morning, bringing the negro with him. Smith visited a house at 412 Thirteenth street in the afternoon and while everyone save himself was gone from the front room, stole, it is alleged, a diamond pin from a bureau drawer. He denied that he committed the theft."

Mortgage Liens.

In reversing the cases of Clift, trustee, against Williams, &c., and Glover & Durrett against Williams, the Court of Appeals holds:

First—An action to enforce a mortgage lien is not barred by limitations unless the debt is barred, though more than fifteen years have elapsed since the mortgage was executed.

Second—An unrecorded mortgage is valid as against antecedent creditors of the mortgagor.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

THE COLSON SHOOTING.

Charge Made That There Was a Conspiracy Against the Colonel—How the Trouble Originated.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 14.—Several members and officers of Col. Colson's regiment returned here to-day from Anneton, Ala. A young officer, who was over the room at the time of the shooting and near enough to hear the voices and words that passed, and entered the room at the time the fight was concluding, said: "There seemed to have been a prearranged plot among the friends of Scott to give Col. Colson the worst of it. When Blakeman began to curse Col. Colson, and the latter pulled his ears, Scott fired at once. Col. Colson's friends claim he did not fire a shot. The provost guard covered Major Collier and disarmed him at the beginning of the fight, and before he had an opportunity to show friendship to Colson. After Col. Colson had been disarmed the provost guard struck him in the face and mistreated him."

"The provost guard retained Col. Colson's weapon, and it has not been shown whether there were empty cartridges." Some of Col. Colson's friends believe that it was understood that Colson was to be provoked into a fight and then given the worst of it.

The Lexington Leader interviewed Private Beecher Holliday in regard to the affair. Mr. Holliday said: "The trouble between Col. Colson and Lieut. Scott began about Quartermaster Albright, of Middlesborough, the brother-in-law of Col. Colson. It seems that Albright made some remarks about the manner in which Scott conducted guard mount. Scott heard it and told Col. Colson that he would do something or other to Albright if it was repeated. One day Col. Colson remarked in Scott's presence that the Fourth had the best Quartermaster in the army. Scott said that Col. Colson was the only one who thought so. After this their relations were strained, and, of course, grew worse. Among some of the officers there was a good deal of bad feeling."

"When we learned that the regiment was to be mustered out, partially because of the Scott-Colson trouble, we began to wear Scott buttons. Col. Colson did not want the regiment mustered out. Neither did he like the Scott buttons."

"Scott was drunk nearly all the time in town and never attended to any of his duties. He once whipped a Major of the First Alabama and some of his companions because they jibed him about the trouble with Colson."

"Other privates of the Fourth were seen," adds the Leader, "concerning the trouble. From their statements the conclusion is drawn that a very bad state of affairs existed in the regiment, there being but little discipline and much disorder."

The many friends of Rev. Dr. John Barbour will be glad to learn he has been called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church, to succeed the late Rev. Dr. John S. Hays.

The call was extended at the session of the church last evening, and was hearty and unanimous.

He has been actively engaged in the ministry since his ordination and has served a number of leading churches, his last pastorate being at Birmingham, Ala. It is no doubt a peculiar pleasure to him, and an especial honor, to be called now to the pastorate of the church where his family has so long worshipped.

Dr. Barbour is an earnest and very forceful speaker, and a zealous worker in the Master's cause.

Mrs. Pogue, who was dining recently at the Hotel Savoy, had the pleasure of listening to an after dinner speech from Chaplain Jones, of the battleship Texas, who, it will be remembered, offered up that famous prayer at the battle of Santiago. He quoted in his speech Captain Phillip's much disputed words on that occasion, which were, "Don't cheer, boys; those poor devils are dying."

LYNCHING MAY FOLLOW.

Excitement intense at Lexington Over the Murder of Jacob S. Keller—McNamara Still at Large.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 15.—King McNamara, the murderer of Jacob S. Keller, is still at large. For two days the town has been scoured by the police, but without result. It is thought that McNamara has not left the city, but dozens of telegrams have been sent to various places giving his description, and directing his apprehension.

Gov. Bradley has offered a reward of $150 for his arrest and a supplementary purse of goodly proportions is being raised by private subscription among the citizens of Lexington.

If McNamara is caught there is every reason to believe that he will be strung up by a mob composed of the very best and most prominent men in Lexington. Indignation was never so intense or so general here before.

Keller's funeral this afternoon was attended by an immense crowd.

Previous to his death, the wounded man gave an account of the shooting. He was on his way home, he said, and while walking along Main street near McAdams & Morford's drug store he suddenly became aware of persons behind him apparently trying to walk on his heels. Turning he saw "King" McNamara, whom he did not know personally, and at that moment McNamara asked him if he intended to take up the whole street. McNamara with an oath told him to let him pass. Keller said "all right," and stepped aside. McNamara brushed by and after going a few steps suddenly turned back and facing Keller trod on the latter's feet and said something insulting. Mr. Keller pushed him away and continued on his way when McNamara pulled out his pistol and fired twice. Only one ball struck Keller, but it perforated the intestines in six or eight places.

As previously stated, Keller's wife was a Miss Calvert, a sister of Mrs. Dr. Shackelford of this city.

The killing is regarded as an unprovoked and malicious crime, and adds another murder to the bloody and disgraceful record in that city.

A BIG CANNERY.

An Ohio Firm Wants to Establish One in Maysville—Would Employ 125 Hands.

A prominent citizen is in receipt of the following:

WOOSTER, OHIO, February 14, 1899.
Dear Sir: I am looking for a favorable location for a large cannery plant for canning tomatoes, apples and small fruits. I am informed that your city desires to secure such a business and write to ask if such is the case.

To locate this business with you it would be necessary for your citizens to agree to build a factory or furnish a building to conduct the business in, and to secure from the farmers 550 acres of tomatoes for which I will agree to pay $5.50 per ton for the product of the acreage. Each farmer to pay a bonus of $12 per acre for the privilege of raising. The bonus to be paid from the crop at the end of the season. This money will be applied to fitting up the plant.

I have ample means to run the business and an established market.

There are several parties after this business, but prefer to locate at the best possible point and where the people want the business and where help is plenty. I will employ 125 hands during the canning season. Waiting your valued favor I am yours truly,
J. N. GRANT.

A bonus of $12 per acre for 550 acres would give over $4,000 for fitting out the plant. The country surrounding Maysville is finely adapted for raising tomatoes, and it might be well for some of our enterprising citizens to take hold of the matter. Mr. Grant is Superintendent of The Wooster Preserving Co.

Fear Another Blockade.

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 15.—A heavy snow began falling here and advices from the surrounding towns indicate that it is general in this section of the state. The fall is as great as that of Sunday and Monday, and if it continues grave fears that the railroads in this neighborhood will again be completely blocked. Great apprehension is also felt that a flood in the upper Potomac river will occur, because of the ice gorges and high water.

Council of Women.

Washington, Feb. 15.—There was only a small attendance at the National Council of Women. Mrs. Sewall, the retiring president, in opening the session, hoped for a speedy entwining of the banner of peace with the flags of the country. The feature of the session was an informal report of the committee on education in citizenship, presented by Mrs. Fannie Humphreys Gaffney, of New York City.

All Trains on Time.

New York, Feb. 15.—At the New York Central train dispatcher's office at the Grand Central depot it was reported that all trains were running on schedule time. The same thing was said regarding the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and its branches.

ROBERT SRAUD, a colored section hand on the C. and O. railroad, found an express money package near the South Ripley depot one morning this week. Evidently it had fallen from an express car. He promptly turned the package over to Agent Jaynes at South Ripley and did not ascertain the amount it contained.

REV. W. P. HARVEY, formerly of this county, now business manager of the Western Recorder, sustained a great loss this week in the death of his daughter, Mrs. Lila Harvey Loving, of Campbellville, Ky. This is his third bereavement in three years, he having lost his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Bell, of Harrodsburg, in 1896, and last year his son died. Mrs. Loving's death was particularly sad, as she was about to become a mother. She was the wife of the Rev. J. W. Loving, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church at Lewisburg.

Contradictory Testimony.
New York, Feb. 15.—The most important feature of the inquest of the Adams poisoning case was that the testimony of Dr. E. E. Hitchcock, who attended Mrs. Adams in her last moments, was in direct conflict with the testimony of Harry S. Cornish and Frederick E. Hovey, both of whom were in Mrs. Adams' flat when she died. Dr. Hitchcock testified that the boy who summoned him told him that he was wanted immediately as a "party had been poisoned."

IN MEMORY OF JAMES MILLS.

Died, on the 19th day of December, 1898, at 8 p. m., in Maysville, Ky., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Goodman, James Mills, in his twentieth year. The deceased was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 25, 1879, and was the son of the late Louis T. Mills and Bessie Lamar Mills, now Bessie L. Goodman, wife of Buckner W. Goodman, Esq., of this city.

It may be truly said of the decease of this young man, that it calls for a more than passing notice. If his little life was full of suffering and of pathos, his character and talents were replete with the most glowing promise. It may be said that all of these were in their bud; but if the hand was so full of beauty and fragrance, what must have been the full blown rose of a splendid manhood, in its full development? He was deprived of the fostering care and love of a kind father while yet in comparative infancy; but they were well supplied in the intensified and unwearied tenderness and devotion of a loving mother, whose almost constant companion he was, during all the years of his widowhood. What wonder that there was something as rare and beautiful as it was pathetic in the love between the widowed mother and her afflicted child? A love which shone all the more beautifully, as she hovered about the little sufferer, in his earlier years, when, as it seemed, the moment had well-nigh arrived for their final separation, amid the transitory scenes of this life. But it was not so decreed. He lived on; and while feeble in body, yet ever bearing with him the heavy burden of affliction, there was no want of intellectual strength. Far from it. He had a mind far beyond his years, and it daily became more apparent that in his young and active brain there lurked the divine spark of genius, and that, being spared, he was destined to be a man of rare and splendid powers. The writer has often been struck with his astonishing power of thought, to say nothing of the range of his information. In this regard, as with many another child of genius, his brain power seemed to be in an inverse proportion to his physical abilities. Thus it has been with many of the brightest and noblest of the sons of men. In the case of James Mills, the eyes and noble head were outward and visible tokens of the fire within, and which was hardly discernible except to the few whose opportunities for observing him were good. Had he lived, there is no knowing to what distinction he might not have attained. That he would have achieved a distinction in the great world of electricity, hardly admits of a doubt. Indeed, it would have occasioned no surprise had he developed into a great inventor. In some respects, his very disabilities seemed to favor him. For a series of years, while other boys were indulging in open air sports, "Jimmy" as he was endearingly known, was generally occupied, indoors, reading, or writing, sketching, constructing, thinking, perhaps dreaming. It was a powerful stimulant to the young brain, which never seemed to rest or tire; but it made him old, in an intellectual sense, before his time; and few there were, even his seniors in years, who could more than hold their own in a mental encounter.

But he is gone. The bright young life is extinguished forever. But it may be truly said that, in his going, Mason County, nay, our State, has been bereft of one of her most gifted children; his mother, the tenderest and sweetest of her life; the youth of the country an inspiration, and society an ornament. A FRIEND.
